Q1FY19 Highlights

- ❖ Improved topline from Value added yarns both domestic and overseas.
- ❖ Domestically, Quarter under review was reasonably good . Better performance by home textile majors boosted demand for yarn.
- ❖ Trade war, Depreciation in Asian currencies impacted overall margins
- ❖ Exports to over 30 countries.

FY18

Q1FY19 performance, Amit Patel, Group Managing Director, said.

"It's a proud moment, our utilisation is at 6,00,000 spindles. A consistent build up of capacities, ramping up of production and simultaneous marketing, quality and customer service has lead to seamless momentum across the value chain. Launch of high end Linen and similar grades are in progress."

"Trade war, Cotton price volatility and depreciation of Asian currencies are some headwinds that we are facing today which is impacting margins. But I am confident that our ability to steer through these challenges by leveraging our customer relationship, good product mix both domestically and overseas."

"Our long term success hinges on de-risked business model as a premium supplier of products across geographies, while continuing our leadership positioning domestically."
